The amount for latter being paid into Court.] The thour, shar being landed, was somewhat damaged by run, and the question was whether there had been such a dailvery as bound Mr. S. to it or not.

The Court charged, that in the tender of a ponderous vicie, it is not necessary actually to place it in the possession of the party. In a tender of money it is necessary, is order to make a legal tender, to have present the gold and silver, and exhibit it to the opposite party in it is an article of merchandise, such as shour, it is sufficient in order to make a legal tender, to say it lies on the dock in such a situation—you can go and take it, before goods are landed, it is necessary to give sufficient notice to the consignee or purchaser, so that he may attend to it; and the same as to a resale of property on a purchasers account—the law requires that sufficient notice must be given to him to enable him, should be see fit, to complete the purchase, or attend the sale and see to his own interest. It is said there had been a delivery in this case, and Mr. S. made the Captain of the barge his agent in relation to getting it on shore. The Jury will decide, from the evidence, whether such was the fact or not, and also whether there had been sufficient notice of resale. If they think the $120 paid ato Court for the 25 bbls, is all that Mr. S. should pay, they will find a verdict for defendant; if not, a verdict to plainiffs, including that amount. Fairacy and John M. Flint.—Action to recover the amount of a check for $250, drawn by Aldrich & Whittey on the Mechanics Banking Association and endorsed wy will find a verificity of definition of the service of the serv and the suit should have been against him instead of Abner.

Mr. Bluet, for plaintiff, contended that the mistake tould be corrected he said the defence was wholly a natter of surprise—that Mesers Beach had ceased the deck for Mr. Plint and it was afterward ascertained at Aldrich & Whiting had no funds at the Mechanics' lanking Association, on which it was drawn, and never lad an account there. Abner S. he said should have puse forward when he found the mistake of insertay his name as one of the firm, and said so, instead of coming in and defending this suit. Mr. B. contended that he had a right now to amend the pleadings, insert the name of Elias T. instead of Abner S. or take a verdict and correct afterward, so as to have a judgment, as many ware entitled against Aldrich & Whitney. Judge Calorfer said he would be happy to allow such a course if he could, but he did not think he was further as to do so by law. If a wrong defendant is joined in the suit it cannot be corrected. A juror was withdrawn to aldrich & Whitney, and a verdict taken against the endorser for the amount.—For plaintiffs, Mr. M. S. Beweier and Mr. N. B. Blunt for defendants, Mr. G. There is rather more demand for money as parties are selling out mortgages to convert into Government Stocks. Mortgages bearing 7 per cent. have thus been exchanged for Government Sixos. This change is made in order to avoid taxes and take advantage of a rise which would follow an arrangement of our difficulties with Mexico.

The Acturion's amendment were proposed, a few of which were agreed to, and without tan action the Senate adjourned.
